Customer Query:

If I price match the Nintendo Switch OLED with Currys, can I also get it included in any bundle deals you're currently running?

Trevor AI Response:

We don't price match at Argos for both online and in store items, so a Nintendo Switch OLED with Currys can't be price matched.
You can still check our website for any promotions we have available, but the price match itself isn't available to combine with bundle deals.
Do we price match with other brands?

Customer Query:

If I buy the Nintendo Switch OLED at your regular price instead of price matching, would I get Fast Track delivery and could I use my Argos Card benefits on it?

Trevor AI Response:

Fast Track delivery is available on some items, but your basket will always show you the speediest options, and in some areas or on larger products we may be unable to offer this service. If the Nintendo Switch OLED is eligible, you'll see the delivery slot at checkout.
For Argos Card benefits, eligible offers depend on what's in your trolley and your circumstances at the time; you'll be able to see what's available after checking your eligibility.
